Mrs. Louisa Withers, Whose Clothes Were Afire, Dies From Fright.

OF POPULAR WOMAN

THE TRAGIC DEATH

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., March 9.-Mrs.
coulsa Withers, wife of Dr. E. D. Withers and a woman widely known throughout this section of Virginia, met a tragic death to-day at her home, Laurel Cliff, about six miles from this city, this morning, as the result of burns sustained from a stove, and the subsequent fright and shock of her nerves, that ensued.

Mrs. Withers was in her room with her daughter, and while placing some wood into a stove, her dress caught on fire. The desperate efforts of Mrs. Powell, her daughter, to extinguish the flames were of no avail, and other assistance had to be secured. Dr. Withers was some distance from the house and hastened when he heard the screams. He found his wife stretched out on the floor dead. An examination at wounds, showed that they were not sufficient to have caused the death of a younger person in good health. Mrs. Withers was 74 years of age, and on account of her feeble health, it is supposed that the fright hastened her death.

She was born and reared in Pittsylvania county, and scarcely any other woman in the section was so widely known. Besides her husband, she is survived by the following children through her first marriage, to the late John Rice Miller-Mrs. Louisa Powell, of this county and E. C. Miller, of Washington. By the second marriage, she is survived by five children-F. F. Withers, of Washington; J. C. Withers, of this city; Mrs. F. J. Faison, of Greensboro; Mrs. Mary Withers, of the county, and Mrs. F. J. Bowen, wife of the city attorney of this city.
